Exotic “Monkey Business” Takes Place at Dream Gala Benefiting Foster Youth.

Benicia, CA – April 2008 – An event to heart-touching to forget and to wild to miss! On May 31st 2008, Foster A Dream’s 6th Annual Dream Gala will take place at the Rotunda Building in Oakland, featuring a spectacular and breathtaking 120-foot, 5,000 square foot elliptical dome. The evening’s festivities will begin with a Private VIP Wine Tasting “A Journey Down Under” featuring some of Australia and New Zealand’s finest wines. After participating in an action packed silent auction, guests will journey down the grand staircase to enjoy an exquisite 4-course dinner by Van Noy Catering.

$20,000 in “Dare to Dream” Scholarships will be awarded to ambitious foster youth pursuing their college dreams. Entertainment highlights also include an exotic animal show, youth performances, vocalists and mentor/mentee testimonies. Guests will strike a pose with Camilla the Baboon, Darth Vader, Storm Troopers and a Marilyn Monroe impersonator.

This amazing event makes it possible for Foster A Dream to help foster youth achieve academic success, participate in extra curricular activities, connect with mentors, find hope to believe in their dreams and so much more. Major sponsors include Valero Benicia Refinery, John Muir Health, Underground Construction, and McGah Family Foundation.

Join us for an evening of endless fun while supporting a priceless cause. Ticket prices are $150 per guest and a portion may be considered a charitable donation. Visit www.fosteradream.org or call 707-747-0100 for more information. END
